

Plan Nine Skatepark Employment Opportunities

Plan Nine is looking for outgoing, self-starting and personable individuals to join our staff. Along with the aforementioned traits it is also important that you possess a passion for one or more of the activities Plan Nine Skatepark is designed for, namely skateboarding, BMX or aggressive inline. You will be expected to approach your job with the same passion and motivation as the action sport you participate in and furthermore act as a mentor to those who you serve in the workplace. Your job at Plan Nine will go beyond basic duties as you will also be an ambassador for your sport.

Plan Nine Skatepark offers three types of employment throughout the year. Please review each choice before completing the attached application.

Volunteer Staff

The Plan Nine Skatepark volunteer staff will handle all skatepark duties from cleaning, monitoring, attendance, light maintenance, etc. This is the ideal position for someone looking to move up to the sales staff or someone who would like the benefits of our sales staff but can't or won't be able to work as a paid employee. Our volunteer staff receives all the benefits of staff members including unlimited free park sessions, deep discounts on merchandise, after hours and private event attendance, etc.

Pay: Volunteer

Work Week: 10-15 hours per week
